Hand-writing test—Education Department.

194. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the number of teachers in the service who have passed State Hand-writing Test Examination; number of clerks in the department who have not passed the Hand-writing Test; the present pay of such teachers and clerks respectively?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—There are three teachers and two of them are drawing Rs. 15 and one Rs. 20.

None of the clerks have passed the test. Their pay according to the revision is Rs. 80—100, 60—80, 40—60 and 25—40.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Is not a good hand-writing a necessary qualification for a clerk?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—It is not prescribed as one of the necessary qualifications required for the clerks according to the rules.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—In practice, is it not necessary that a clerk should have a good hand-writing?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—It is one of the necessary qualifications in a clerk; but, as I said, it is not prescribed so.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Have these clerks more qualifications than those who have passed the Hand-writing Test? What are the qualifications of those clerks at present?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—I want notice.
